Mr. Bloch:

I am very happy to hear that. We can most certainly send them electronically.

Mr. ReBrook,

We typically send and receive documents from the defendants in an electronic format. We can arrange for our vendor, Epiq, to send you a link with instructions on how to upload the documents electronically to Epiq. There should be no cost associated with this. Please let us know promptly whether you'd like us to make those arrangements.

Thanks,

Mike

Mr. ReBrook,

Are the documents in hard copy or some other format?

Also, if you have withheld any documents on the basis of privilege, you will need to make the requisite disclosures (i.e. a privilege log) pursuant to Rule 26(b)(5) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Subject: Discovery

Mr. Bloch:

My human client has gone through all of the paperwork generated by the vendor and removed all privileged communications. There weren't many. What's left is quite voluminous. How would you like to receive it? Do I send you a bill for shipping?

Best regards,
